CARROLL BUILDING

Foreword

As Namers look through these pages and reminisce through the year, the song of memory will ring in their hearts.

Through the work and fun of classes, the thrill of making the honor roll, prizes won and knowledge gained, scholastic endeavors are relived.

The first football game, the excitement of a basketball championship, the noise and chatter of music rooms, the buzz of a news room preparing to go to press are part of the song . . . on and off campus, during and after school hours.

The song swells as we stand at the close of our last retreat at Benediction. The blazing candles blurred by our tears of reminiscence, joy, sadness, anticipation . . . sincere young voices sing "Holy God We Praise Thy Name." That is why we have selected as the theme of our yearbook:

The Song in Our Hearts

Most Reverend Edward F. Hoban

Every need of his students, the future Catholic leaders of his diocese, is anticipated and supplied. Above all, the spiritual progress of his spiritual children is first and foremost to our Archbishop.

Diplomas take on a special meaning as they are passed from his hand and graduates are sent forth with his episcopal blessing.

"God bless his every endeavor and further his holy work," is the fervent prayer of the Holy Name student.

Right Reverend Charles W. McDonough

Honor Roll, Friday Mass, the closing of retreat, success in athletics or scholastic achievements would seem incomplete without the steady encouragement and praise of Monsignor Charles W. McDonough.

Students at Holy Name revere this friend and benefactor who helps them to follow God's Will. His most eager concern is for the spiritual welfare of each student. His solicitude is for scholastic success according to ability.

The twinkling Irish eyes and ever-ready smile, a word of encouragement are indications of the character of the beloved pastor and president of Holy Name Church and High School.

Our Priests

Rev. Albert A. Karper, S. T. D.

Father Karper, known to Namers as their spiritual director, is rated as superior, especially in the eyes of the senior class, to whom he teaches fourth year Religion. His workmanship, outstanding as Bazaar Chairman, is also credited in teaching adult minds the Word of God, and as moderator of the Altar and Rosary Society.

Rev. James E. Hughes

Active in leadership of extra-curricular activities is Father Hughes. His work as athletic director is known to all HN students. Sodalists praise his active participation as their moderator. Sophomores are educated in the teachings of Christ under his weekly instruction in the classroom.

Rev. Robert W. Cauley

Lauded by the freshmen, Father Cauley strives to direct youthful minds toward the road to God. His anecdotes at rallies and on campus are cherished by students as humorous and yet full of meaning. It is under his guidance that the Holy Name Society progresses.

Who Keep Our Tones True

Among his dearest friends, the Holy Name student cherishes the friendship of the Priest. Fulfilling the sacred duty of the priesthood, he urges Namers to assist him at Mass, that with him they may offer sacrifice to God. He invites them to be present when he renews the Holy Sacrifice of the Cross.

In the confessional, the priest absolves the repentant sinner, allowing his mind once more to be in spiritual peace. He hears the case of the guilty, the final decision being that of a righteous judge.

His advice is that of a wise father, directing his sons and daughters in times of woe.

A reliable doctor, he prescribes medicine for the soul, strengthening it in its quest for the supernatural, and sending it, healthy in the graces of God, on the journey toward Heaven.

Rev. Thomas P. Campbell

Popular in the eyes of youth is Father Campbell, religious instructor of the seventh and eighth grades. Teen-agers praise his excellent work in bringing religious education to students who attend his Confraternity Classes on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Monday morning brings Father Budimlic from Brecksville, where he is assistant pastor at Assumption Parish, to junior Religion classes at Holy Name. Here he instructs the minds of students in their search for eternal happiness.

"Holy God We Praise Thy Name" . . . Namers have just come from the football field where the score shows defeat. But when the Church is crowded and fervent voices thank God, filling the Church with the strains of this familiar hymn, who has lost? Not Namers!

They never lose. Our Pastor, our faculty, and the spirited Lil' Davids who have gone before us, have shown us that there are victories to be had that are not tabulated on an electric scoreboard.

"The Spirit of Holy Name" has long been renowned. It is felt during class days, retreats, athletics and every Name endeavor. It cannot be attributed to one group, one activity or one season of the year.

Every Namer is an integral part in upholding Holy Name and furthering her interests. Giving their best to put HN above the rest is the cry as Lil' Davids grow in grace and wisdom and the wonderful "spirit of faith."

Holy Name Elementary School became a separate unit in 1944. Monsignor McDonough purchased from the Board of Education the unused building at the corner of Broadway and Worley Avenue.

The Sisters of Charity, upon moving in, brought the newly acquired institution to completion.

Crescendo

From the halls of Carroll and Gallagher our song has increased from the small chorus in 1914 to the thousand voices of today.
May our Crescendo find its echo in the hearts of the American People and may we hear America singing "Holy God, we praise Thy Name."

The Staff

"Up 2,3,4, down 2,3,4 . . . "

Imagination, dependability, perseverance, and self-sacrifice constitute the requirements for staff membership.

The Senior Class

Presidents of the Senior Home Rooms

Ray Pesta, 104C; John Yarana, 102C; Tom Oriti, 103C; Philip Houdek, 101C.

The grand finale, Commencement. The strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and the senior song lingers in the minds of each graduate. Slowly the memorable notes blend into a melody: The dignity he first experienced in occupying the front pews at Friday Mass, the proud feeling of being a resident of a first floor homeroom, and acting as a Big Brother to the underclassmen at the Senior-Freshman Party.

He recalls the good times: The Christmas Ball, Career Days, the Championship Rally, and the senior breakfast.

The cloud of familiar faces brings back memories of that last retreat, May Crowning, and the struggling together through scholarship tests and semester examinations. And these days were heightened with the excitement of class rings, memory books, and friendship pictures.

Then finally the resounding climax vibrates in each heart as the closing refrain of our song is sung: "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord."

The Senior Scene closes and it is "Curtain, Alumni!"

The one thing uppermost in the minds of the juniors, as the year goes on, is the annual junior-senior Dinner Dance held, May 10.

Plans began in February when committees were formed for cafeteria and auditorium decorations, menu and seating arrangements and programs.

After school, activity periods, and week-ends found the juniors amid plans and preparations.

The problems connected with any affair are numerous and trying but through prayers and sacrifice, the major event of the year has been a success.

The tempo of our song during class periods is slower but with a depth . . . the depth of studies, of classdays filled with new things to learn. May the depth of our song lead us to realize "the depth of the riches, of the Wisdom and the Knowledge of God.

The Catholic side of learning is evidenced by daily religion classes. Father Karper's weekly instruction gives seniors the correct views on Christian Marriage.

Subject matter for the year includes a study of the Life of Blessed Virgin, the Last Sacraments, the Three States of Life, Justice and Its Relation to the Seventh, Eighth, and Tenth Commandments.

Love of God ---- Love of Learning

"Joy in Reading," the title of the freshman Literature book, is the motto of English I. It expresses perfectly the educational as well as the entertaining value of books. Students journey through the ancient, medieval, and modern periods meeting their favorite characters.

During class they have become well acquainted with Shakespeare, Robert Louis Stevenson, and other great writers whose immortal tales of adventure, mystery, suspense, humor, and pathos have thrilled so many Frosh before them.

Every day between 11:15 to 12:25 each homeroom has a half-hour period, planned according to its grade. Freshmen spend much of their time studying Orientation or the ways of adapting themselves to high school curriculum. Vocational subjects give the opportunities for research problems during this period.

Treading the High School Way

International in scope, the library has books by authors of every country. Its selection includes fiction and works encompassing the natural sciences, fine arts, and literature.

"Quick and simple" describes the library system. In September each student was issued a library card to be used when borrowing books.

Library "pages" check out books, return them to the proper shelves and answer some of the inquiries about book selections.

There are many ways of crossing a bridge but the geometry class has decided to cross it according to the Pythagorean Principle. This proposition is a bit difficult but when the problem is made venturesome by "Who will cross the bridge first?" sophomores get down to real reasoning.

Roman leaders and their plans of government are being studied and enjoyed by the students in Latin III. They find it interesting to see the territory commanded by the Caesars and their armies. Latin is a living language to these students who spend much time with the Language of the Church.

'Parlez Vous ? . . . . No Comprende !'

"Comment allez-vous? Je vais bien, merci."

"How go you? I go fine, thanks," which really means, "How are you? I am fine, thanks." This and many other French idiomatic expressions make for laughter in the French class.

On the serious side, however, the students are mastering the language. This includes not only learning grammar but also the pronunciation which is not easy.

An extra-curricular of the class is the French Club. Members of the Club report to the class on many of the famous Cathedrals and historical places of France.

Sociology opens to seniors a new field of study, dealing with human society, its customs and regulations, and how these change.

Pope Leo XIII's encyclical, "Rerum Novarum," offers a complete expose on the relations of capital and labor. Sociologists acquire the correct ideas on labor and management.

Enforcing the Christian Social Principles, these students will take their place in society. As future citizens, they can help to guide our Country according to these Principles.

Rolling back the pages of time, the students uncover the thrilling and exciting happenings of the youngest nation in the world, America. Daily exploration of a modern text makes pilgrims come to life as they cross the rolling ocean in their wooden ships.

And If I Should Live to Be..

Thoughts of the moment when the soul goes forth to meet its Judge is the concern of the senior English students in their study of "The Dream of Gerontius."

Listening to the recording gives the students a better appreciation and understanding of Cardinal Newman's work. This poem emphasizes several points, especially the place of the Guardian Angel in our salvation, for as the Angel of Gerontius says: "My Father gave in charge to me this child of Earth e'en from its birth . . . "

English III students spend much of their time studying American Literature. From the many authors they have chosen Oliver Wendell Holmes as their favorite. Some like his "Last Leaf" while others prefer the patriotism shown in "Old Ironsides." Perhaps they like the description of the boat because they are conscious of the fact that recently Cleveland has been named as a national seaport.

Observing the different parts of the flower is but one phase in the study of living things by biologists.

Plant and minute animal life are carefully observed under microscopic lens on laboratory days. Some time is devoted to oral reports and individual projects.

Fascinating experiments are performed by junior and senior students in the Chemistry lab. Discovering an unknown quantity and testing for its properties provide intrigue and complication, but only after sufficient and conscientious preparation has been made.

Faint cooking odors and the hum of industrious sewing machines tell you that you are nearing the northeastern side of Holy Name campus. The Home Economics portable is always the site of busy students learning the arts and skills of homemaking.

"Inside the Catholic Schools," WEWS television program, presented Holy Name's Homemaking classes on February 10, 1956. Each student participating in the show was given a Television Award of Merit for displaying Catholic Action.

The first lesson is the realization that the center of every good home is God. First, you must be at peace with God, then you can learn how to get along with your family and friends.

God Is the Center of Every Home

Consumer Education is an important lesson in the series of budget planning. Mr. Hunt, of the Goodman Furniture Company, shows the advanced homemakers the different types of joints in furniture construction.

The vast majority of fields that homemaking classes cover will be of great benefit to both the girls and boys who will shape tomorrow's society.

Advanced Homemaking is something new this year. Strictly for senior girls, the class includes mental hygiene, child care, budget-planning, interior decorating, and meal preparation.

Once a week the girls take a Home Nursing course from Red Cross nurse, Miss Jacqueline Heed.

Tommy, Maria, and Billy listen as Patricia Stewart finishes the familiar story of three kittens by telling them the moral. It is important for the adult to understand the needs of the child and the things that he wants. The children from Holy Name Elementary gave the girls a good chance to apply the theories they have learned.

The Home Is the Keystone of Society

Production line is a good way to make cookies and make them fast, as proven by sophomore home ec students, Francine Stopa, Doris Tracy, Marian Prusha, and Thomas O'Boyle. Under the guidance of Mrs. William Kemme, the second year food classes planned, purchased and prepared the meal which was served "live" on television.

During a week in an office practice class, three days are spent on laboratory work and two on discussions. A rotation schedule was devised to give the class the air of a real office; several people are doing different jobs.

Each member of the class has a turn on the standard office equipment. An electric typewriter, a Ditto liquid duplicator, a Mimeograph and Mimescope, Burroughs calculators and comptometers, a ten-key and a full-key adding machine, Ediphone and Dictaphone transcribing machines, and the check-protector.

A four-week period is spent on filing, another week as class supervisor, and one as office assistant.

Today's Knowledge....

In the typewriting classes, both first and second year, timings are recorded to stimulate competition, and production work is assigned to give practical experience in applying the rules they have learned. All senior typists are given a turn on the electric typewriter.

Panel discussions included "The Life of a Sister," December 14, in which the life of a postulant, a novice, and a professed Sister were explained to the girls. "The Leadership of the Sodalist" was discussed by a panel on March 14.

Skating parties and a wiener roast, earlier in the year, brought out the social life of the Sodalist.

Sodality officers N. Cahur, G. Stankewicz, D. Adams, and T. McCafferty admire, with Father Hughes, the newly purchased Sodality flag.

Dinner is served to Sodalists in the recreation room to conclude the day of recollection.

Father Thomas Biecker, S.J. conducted the senior girls' day of recollection on Sunday, December 11, at Holy Name Convent.

The forty girls attending heard sermons encouraging imitation of the Mother of God, the virtue of purity and frequent reception of the sacraments. Father Biecker also explained vocations.

And the Band Plays On

The song in our hearts beats a little faster and faces glow with pride as Holy Name's marching musicians step snappily onto the football field and fill the air with music.

The smothering warmth of July, through the cold snowy days of November, finds these sixty Namers drilling every Tuesday and Thursday to perfect the unique style for which they are famous.

The Namer style has had time to manifest and perfect itself as Mr. Pattie has cried "lift those feet," "swing those instruments" and the Green Wave steps on the field with pride that sparks the crowd and spurs our team to the fight.

St. Patrick's Day finds the green clad "Irishmen all" a real part of the Hibernian Brigade. Through the Cleveland Solo Contest and the John Carroll Band Festival the concert band brings honor to Holy Name.

Springtime brings concert time and the marching musicians take their places and provide a waltz, a stirring march, a little be-bop; something for all as they present their annual concert as a seasonal wind-up.

Sixteen senior girls will leave an opening for as many freshmen when June and September come around. These girls have played an important part in helping to make the "marching music" of Holy Name Band.

The Mother Seton League is one of the very active organizations at Holy Name.

This club has for its patron, the saintly foundress of the Sisters of Charity, teachers in the school.

The purpose of the organization is to give the members an opportunity to perform acts of charity.

Among the many activities of the Mother Seton League, they prepared Red Cross Kits and tote bags. The Leaguers also collected potatoes for the Little Sisters of the Poor, toys for the children at the DePaul Infant Home and made Thanksgiving favors for the Alvina Home for Old People.

Talents were displayed amidst fun and laughter, as Christmas and Thanksgiving parties were put into production.

One hundred and fifty Leaguers spend many delightful hours at the DePaul infant Home, Rosemary Home for Crippled Children, Jennings Hall for the Aged, and the Home conducted by the Little Sisters of the Poor.

We Sing to the Lord .... Our Canticle

God has given to man the marvelous gift of song. Holy Name Glee Club affords the students an opportunity to use this musical talent.

The hundred voice girl chorus assembles to learn a variety of songs in preparation for some festive occasion. The year's performances included The Saint Cecilia's Day program. Their selections were "A Merry Life" by Denza and "Hymn to St. Cecilia." At Christmas time the choristers sang at the Square and at the State Hospital.

"Celtic Lullaby" arranged by Roberton and "The Kye Song" by Clokey were their selections for the St. Patrick's Day program.

At the Spring Festival which climaxed the year's programs, they sang "Ave Maria" by Arcadelt, "Tota Pulchra Es," Faure, and Fred Waring's arrangement of "One Little Candle."

Their singing is motivated by the enjoyment they get from singing, the lifting of their hearts to God, and the pleasure they give to others.

True as the melody "Without a Song," singing brings a warmth and glow into the lives of Namers.

Charity does begin at home but Namers agree that it should not stay there.

In such organizations as the Mother Seton League, the Catholic Students Mission Crusade and individual home room projects, the students sacrifice their time and some of their money to bring comfort to those who need it.

Through performing corporal works of mercy, they are trying to live "What you do for the least of these . . . . you do for Me."

W. Hall, L. Pikus, R. Mikol.

'Extra Curriculars . . . .

"Mary be my Valentine" reads the Gallagher Building's Bulletin board. During this month we celebrate the birthdays of three great men, Lincoln, Washington, and Msgr. McDonough.

Class Projects including the bulletin boards, give students an opportunity to display their artistry and imagination and to gain a more homelike atmosphere.

. . . . Ad Altar Dei

The Servers Society is a very important organization at Holy Name. Boys who belong to this society realize what the requirements are for membership and they are willing to give up certain pleasures for the privilege of being in the Sanctuary.

Time must be spent in learning how to be a good acolyte, for the members of the Servers Society realize the privilege which is theirs, to serve God's Priest at the Altar.

They realize that theirs is an unusual position. They take the place of the people in answering the Priest at the Mass; they minister to the Priest in his offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

With the restoration of the Easter Vigil the senior servers had to study the regulations for the acolytes. James Valvoda reads the ending phrase of the Latin which indicates the next action for the servers.

Apostolic Leaders

As the Lenten season comes to an end, the junior servers realize that they will have to replace, in Solemn High Masses, those servers who are graduating.

P. Matlin, vice president; Patrick Mullen, treasurer; Namar Fritz, president; Barbara Kuchta, secretary.

Officers of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade endeavor to make the work of their Unit personal. For this reason they spend time selecting reading material which will enable the students to STUDY the missions.

This group has been active in the work of sending magazines and pamphlets where they can be used, in taking care of tax stamps and the collections for the Bishops' Relief Fund during Lent.

"What the heart thinketh the mouth speaks." Holy Name men are instilling in their minds and hearts a love of God and praise for His Holy Name.

He is a man who is not afraid to show reverence for a Name to be revered.

He is a man who asks blessings in the Name of Christ rather than one who curses misfortune.

He is a man who shows his love of God in every action and word.

He is a Man . . . a Holy Name man.

T. Fitzgerald, A. Kaniecki, J. Schwendeman.

Vivace

Our song climaxes in a burst of glory as the Band announces the arrival of the Green Wave Gridders, as it leads in the song of victory or defeat . . . May Namers always be as bold and courageous as athletes, carrying their Faith to the World.

Sports

Mr. Edward Regan, head football coach at Holy Name, became a member of the faculty in the fall of 1953.

A graduate of Bowling Green and former backfield coach of Dayton-Chaminade, Mr. Regan began as assistant football coach. At the present time he is teaching History and World Geography and is head football coach and track coach.

Mr. Louis Popek, assistant football coach at Holy Name, is a Lincoln graduate. He furthered his education at Bowling Green College and at John Carroll University.

He conducts four General Science Classes each day.

Mr. Aloysius O'Neill, graduate of St. Joseph High School, Fremont, Ohio, attended the University of Dayton, where he majored in Physical Education. Mr. O'Neill served in the Korean Military Advisory Group for two years. He is backfield coach at Holy Name. American History and Health Classes are his teaching assignment.

Mr. Frank Riessinger, business manager of athletics, at Holy Name assists Father Hughes in the work of the Athletic Department.

Besides handling ticket sales and gate returns he also helps to take care of the equipment. Mr. Riessinger has been associated with HN sports since 1925.

Mr. Marlo Termini was graduated from Holy Name with the Class of 1944. After service in the Armed Forces, he entered the University of Dayton.

In 1953 Mr. Termini returned to Holy Name as freshman football and basketball coach. At the close of the '53 season Coach Termini was appointed head basketball coach.

Sports

Father Hughes, during the past six years, has guided the athletic program at Holy Name.

From the football of the fall to the spring track meets, Father is with the coaches and teams helping to make decisions. These should inspire the boys to be good sportsmen and to keep Holy Name as one of the finest schools in the Land.

Father James E. Hughes

Senior Lettermen Proudly Present . . . .

Angelo Rinaldi, John Melbar, James Jaras, Tom Oriti, John Yarano, Don Anselm, Bill Fearon, Leon O'Grodnick.

Gridiron Glory - The 'Namer' Way .....

We Pray the Game . . .

Holy Name spirit is shown throughout the entire sports season. 'Lil David' is constantly influencing every Namer to co-operate and participate in school activities.

Preparation

All is quiet in the Church, the medals are blessed, the Priest's hand once more ascends, but this time it is for the final blessing.

The sound of cleats herald the familiar sight of the football players proceeding to the Communion rail to receive the traditional medal which will be worn in their green and white helmets during the game.

A hopeful prayer is whispered by each boy that the team may bring back a victory for their Priests, their Sisters, their families and Holy Name.

Transportation

The shuffle from the doors of the Church to the school bus is the only sound heard as the team hurries to get to the football field.

Silence is a virtue and the boys realize it for they offer their silence in the bus as a sacrifice for success and protection. The Rosary slips through their fingers and each one hopes to have it said by the time he reaches the Field.

Supplication

"Strong, fierce, and determined" describes the 1955 football squad. They try to recall the tactful plans and decisive actions to be made on the field.

Before beginning the game, the team huddles in the center of the playing field for a final prayer. This time their prayers are offered publicly, with the hope that the spectators will join with them.

Preparations for the games do not stop after rallies, cheers, and practice but they are preceded and succeeded by attendance at Mass, Holy Communion, sacrifices, and prayers. "Namers" strive to bring honor to God and to their alma mater and they make every action count.

.... At Holy Name

Expectation

The coin has been tossed to determine which team will start with the ball. The final prayer has been said and now the moment for the kick-off is eagerly awaited by the Coach and the rest of the team. All eyes follow the ball as it soars through the air and is intercepted by an HN man.

Benedictine . . . . . September 16

Nearly four thousand spectators witnessed the Green Wave's opening game against the Benedictine Bengals at John Adams field. The Bengals scored 4 touchdowns in the second half to break up the game and win, 53-6.

Quarterback Phil Houdek injured his shoulder and was lost to the team for the rest of the season.

John Marshall . . . . September 23

West Tech Field was the setting for the Green Wave's second game. Drizzling rain and fumbles plagued the Namers as they dropped a 19-0 Senate opener to the John Marshall Lawyers.

West High . . . . . October 1

A missed conversion and three stubborn yards prevented the Namers from recording their first victory as they bowed to the West High Cowboys, 14-13, at West Tech Field.

Paced by Rinaldi's two scoring bursts of 22 and 5 yards, the Namers entered the final quarter trailing by that one point.

A sustained drive of 55 yards, placed the ball on the West 10-yard line. Four cracks at the line gained only seven yards, and the Cowboys ran out the clock.

St Ignatius . . . . . October 8

Inability to hold the ball caused the Green Waves' fourth grid loss. St. Ignatius Wildcats capitalized on every break and traveled to a 40-0 victory.

The Namers' farthest penetration was to the Wildcats' 13-yard line.

West Tech . . . . . October 21

Spurred on by a 80-yard run, the West Tech Warriors vanquished the Namers, 20-0, at West Tech Field.

The long gallop came several minutes before the end of the first half and it sent the Green Wave into an undertow. Struggling hard to recover the ball the Namers' spirits were not downed by the successful Warriors.

South . . . . . October 14

Armed with tradition and the trusty sling shot, Name's Lil' Davids fought the arch-rival, South High to a 0-0 tie at John Adams Field.

Before rain-drenched fans . . . slipping and sliding on a muddy football field . . . neither team threatened in the first half.

Late in the third quarter, the big play occurred. South halfback, Roger Glickman, rambled into the clear at mid-field on his way to a 65-yard jaunt. Jim Jaras took chase and with a desperate dive tackled Glickman on the third yard. South's Flyers drove to the one where the Namers braced and held South's attempt to regain the Pig Iron Trophy futile.

Latin . . . . October 30

Throwing off the cloak of adversity, the Green Wave hit their offensive peak of the season when they tallied 19 points in a loss to Cathedral Latin at John Adams field.

A 10-yard pass from Name's George Kriak to Tom Oriti and a 5-yard gallop by Angelo Rinaldi, found the Green Wave just one point behind at the end of the half.

Latin's Lions passed pay dirt twice in the third period and hung on as the Namers rallied. Final score 33-19. Incidentally it was the highest total ever scored against Latin by a Newburgh eleven.

Rhodes . . . . . November 5

The final home game of the year ended on a sly note as the Namers dropped a 35-6 decision to the Rams.

After leading 6-0 on a 6-yard run by Rinaldi, the Green Wave fell before the height and weight of Rhodes High.

Lincoln . . . . . November 12

The Wave started too late, as the last quarter touchdowns by Rinaldi and the 40-yard run of Jaras were of no avail.

It closed down the 1955 campaign with a tie game out of nine contests.

The backfield scoring punch of the "Big Green" containing 4 seniors, 4 sophomores, 4 juniors, scored 56 points during the season. Most of these points were made at the end of the season. Angelo Rinaldi accounted for 36 of them.

The HN forward wall, 8 seniors, 11 juniors, and 7 sophomores was an inexperienced line. Five out of 7 starters were lost by graduation and Coach Lou Popek had to rebuild a new line around Tom Oriti and Don Anselm, and Center Leon O'Grodnick.

They could not save the 161 points in the 7 senate games but since only 8 of the 26 are seniors, the future of the forward wall looks promising.

Phil Houdek and Andy Nawalienic suffered injuries in the opening game and were unable to participate during the rest of the season. Phil, a senior, and Andy, a junior, were both lettermen.

Adoration

Glory is given to the victor but even greater honor is placed in the loser who has done his best. This thought is in the heart of every student as he returns to Church and offers Adoration to the Blessed Sacrament with the team.

A few short prayers led by Father Hughes, the loud strains of "Holy God we praise Thy Name," and the game has been prayed at Holy Name.

Cheerleaders

H ..... N ..... S !

Adding pep and zest to the Holy Name games are five spirited cheerleaders who share the spotlight with the School's athletic department.

Under the direction of Mrs. Gilda Andrassy and the leadership of Bill Zitta, the boys attend every game to lead the cheers and to give the team the moral support of the entire student body.

To become a cheerleader a boy must be peppy and spirited. He must have a good scholastic record and be able to maintain good grades throughout the school year.

He is a mirror of the school he represents and, therefore, he must be of good character both spiritually and mentally.

Bill Zitta, senior 103C, has completed his fourth year as a member of the cheerleading squad. He was elected co-captain in his sophomore and junior years and captain in his senior year.

At the annual Arena Basketball Championship the Holy Name cheerleaders placed third in competition with eight cheerleading teams.

Holy Name's Champion Cagers won 13 of 16 games in capturing the West Senate Crown. Sparked by Ron Oranski's record breaking 45 points, the Namers toppled the defending champion, West High, in the opening game, 93 to 71.

Against Benedictine the team proved their "never-say-die" spirit as they came from behind in the closing minutes to walk off with a 64 to 61 decision. The HN Green Wave took a big step in their race for the title when they defeated a tough St. Ignatius, 62 to 57; West Tech 64 to 52 (overtime); and South in a rugged overtime game 71-64.

It was now apparent to all, that Holy Name's Ron Oranski and Bob Pawlak were two of the top scorers in the District. After disposing of John Marshall by a score of 56-44, "Lil' David" absorbed their first loss as Cathedral Latin beat them with 64 points to their 62. Back on the victory trail again, the Namers defeated Rhodes 78 to 66 and Lincoln 70 to 61.

Starting the second half of the season, Marlo Termini's boys found the going a little rough as they were upset by West 58 to 61 and St. Ignatius 46-68. Their intense desire for vitory was displayed again as they topped West Tech 44 to 41.

Against South, Holy Name played one of their best games of the season as they came home with a 76 to 75 decision. In a double overtime victory at John Marshall, the Green Wave brought into light again their "never-say-die" spirit by coming from behind to win 68 to 66. With three seconds remaining on the scoreboard clock Ron Oranski tipped in the tying basket. As the first overtime period ended, the scoreboard showed a 66 to 66 tie. This meant "sudden death." The first team to score after the center jump would win. All-scholastic, Bob Pawlak, after taking a pass from Don Jaskolka, made a spectacular driving lay-up to bring the Green Wave one of its hardest earned victories.

In the following game Rhodes' stalling tactics failed as the "Fighting Irish" won by a score of 36 to 29. Against Lincoln, Ron Oranski and Bob Pawlak teamed up 76 points between them to lead Holy Name to a record breaking 101-66 trouncing over Lincoln. Guard Bill Swindell broke the hundred mark with a lay-up with two minutes remaining on the clock.

Ron and Bob, known as Mr. Outside and Mr. Inside, provided Holy Name with the best one-two punch in the District. Bob finished the regular season with 379 points while Ron totalled 416 points in sixteen games.

Holy Name's fine performance in the title game climaxed a very successful season for Coach Termini and his cagers. Despite their lack of height, the Green Wave was always in the game fighting and winning the admiration of the crowd and sports writers.

KNEELING: J. Driscoll, R. Zarzicki, L. Puzynski, J. Vanek.

STANDING: T. Strahan, N. Nedoma, J. Szelagowski, T. Fath, Coach, Mr. Aloysius O'Neill.

Holy Name's Junior Varsity completed their schedule with eight victories and eight defeats. With an opening victory over defending champions West High, the Namers were handed their first loss by Benedictine. The following week the "Little Green Wave" fell before St. Ignatius and a week later, West Tech. Against South the Jayvees took on a new look as they defeated their neighbors with a decisive victory which was to be indicative of the remainder of the season.

Holy Name's height, Larry Clark 6'3"; Ron Zurilla 6'1"; Don Cozzens 5'11"; Tom Fath 5'9", and Captain John Driscoll 5'7", proved too much for John Marshall as the Namers walked away with another victory.

Against Cathedral Latin they lost an independent game as none of the starters could find the range from the floor. Back in the Senate again, the Jayvees lost to Rhodes in a close overtime game. The tables were turned as the Green Wave defeated Lincoln in an overtime thriller at Latin the following week.

Starting the second half of the season, Holy Name decisioned West. Against St. Ignatius, the Namers fell before the West Senate Champions by a score of 64 to 46. The Namers defeated West Tech and South by two points. John Marshall fell before the Namers as did Rhodes, 40-30.

The "Little Green Wave" ended the season with a disappointing loss to Lincoln. Under the guidance of Mr. Aloysius O'Neill the team has shown possibilities for an excellent varsity.

West Senate Champs !

Beating West High, 71-61, and with a 12-2 Senate record the Green Wave of Holy Name became eligible to enter Cleveland Arena for City title.

Their opponents were East Tech. The game ended 64-54 for East Tech.
